Bidding

ALL BIDS ARE FINAL AT AUCTION At auction there is no "cooling off period". If you are awarded the final bid, ownership changes at the drop of the gavel. You own the merchandise and are responsible for payment. No bidder may retract a bid after the fall of the hammer for any reason. Winning bidders will be charged a buyer's premium in addition to the accepted bid price. Bidder is responsible of all risk of loss or damage immediately upon purchase of the vehicle or item, which occurs at the time of the sale when the bidder is declared by the auctioneer to have successfully bid. You are responsible for all bids made with this bidder number, whether or not made by you and whether or not authorized by you. If your bidder card is lost or stolen, immediately report to Motostalgia as all bids made with this bidder number will be your responsibility.

Lots are auctioned in numerical order as they appear in the catalog. Lots may be withdrawn or added without notice to buyers as Motostalgia LLC see fit. The auctioneer may vary bidding as well as split or reject a bid at his or her discretion. Motostalgia LLC shall not have any liability whatsoever to any bidder for exercise of bidding or for any errors in execution or failure to execute any bid(s), regardless of circumstances or events of any kind.
